OBJECTIVE

I am a sixth-semester Information Systems student at UPN "Veteran" Jakarta with a growing passion for web development. I have hands-on experience working with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, and I'm continually improving my skills with modern frameworks like ReactJS, NextJS, and VueJS. As a student, I enjoy learning how to create responsive and user-friendly web applications while exploring best practices in coding and design. I am eager to apply my knowledge and grow through real-world experiences, contributing to projects where I can learn and make an impact.
